PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul's Bravery
SECONDARY TOPIC—Paul's Bravery
TERTIARY TOPIC—Paul's Bravery
IMMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Overcoming Superstition.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Overcoming Superstition.

1. Paul Preaching in Ephesus (vv. 3-10).
Paul's custom was to go to the Jews first with the gospel, though they were his inveterate enemies. His preaching here was characterized by boldness. He knew that God had sent him and therefore that he was backed by divine authority. This should characterize every Christian worker.

2. Argument. The gospel message is in accord with the highest reason. (v. 18). Persuasion. It is not enough that the minister come boldly with a reasonable message. It must be accompanied with persuasion. "Knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men."

3. The message should have definite content.
It was concerning the kingdom of God. Paul's supreme theme was salvation through Christ.

4. In the schoolhouse of Tyranus (vv. 9-10).
Paul's earnest scriptural and persuasive preaching only hastened the conversion of the Jews, even causing them to speak evil openly of this way of salvation by faith in Christ. It was for this reason that Paul separated the disciples from them and retired to the schoolhouse of Tyranus, where he continued his ministry for two years with glorious results.

5. God Working Miracles by Paul (vv. 11-19).
Ephesus was noted for its wonder workers, therefore if Paul's ministry was to be successful God must in an extraordinary way put His seal upon the work. So wonderful was the divine power manifested that even handkerchiefs or aprons brought from Paul's body healed the sick and cast out evil spirits. Everywhere the supremacy of the Lord Jesus Christ was recognized. Seeing the marvelous power operating through Paul, certain strolling Jews who went about the country practicing the magical arts at the expense of their poor unfortunate pupils, a detour to use the name "Jesus" in their incantations. Knowing that the connection with Christ was not real on the part of these Jews, the use of His name by them only enraged the evil spirit who struck them and overcame them. The name of Jesus is only powerful on the believers lips.

6. A Glorious Revival at Ephesus (vv. 17-19).
The fear fell upon all (v. 17). News of the casting out of these evil spirits created impressions favorable to Christianity.

7. It brought to the front those who professed faith in Christ, while not being right lives (v. 18). They believed but had not broken from sin. Great blessing would come to the church if some awakening could come to those whose lives are not in keeping with their profession and cause them to openly confess and make a new start.

8. Give up the practice of Black Arts (v. 19).
This means forms of jugglery by use of charms and magical words. All such are in opposition to the will of God, therefore no one can have fellowship with God and practice them. They proved the genuineness of their actions by publicly burning their books.

9. The uproar of the silversmiths at Ephesus (vv. 23-41).
The occasion (vv. 23, 24).
This was the power of the gospel in destroying the infamous business of Demetrius and his fellows.

10. The method (vv. 25-29).
Demetrius, a leading business man, called a meeting and stated that because of much people turning from idolatry business conditions were threatened and that the market for their wares was weakening. He stated, "This our craft is in danger." The world is willing to tolerate any kind of religion or moral awakening so long as it does not interfere with its business or manner of life. He further said, "The temple of the goddess Diana will be destroyed." He became quite religious when he saw that business was being interfered with.

11. Entering Heaven
The entrance to heaven is carefully guarded. No one will slip in. "There shall in no wise enter into it anything unclean."—The Shantman.

12. A Call
A need, a need known, and the ability to meet that need constitutes a call.—John F. Goucher.

13. Try the Uplook
When the outlook is dark, try the uplook!—The Shantman.

14. SICKLY HOUSE PLANTS
Some people have great difficulty in growing house plants, while others seem to be able to grow almost any kind of plant in any home they occupy.
Gas, insect sprays, too little water, too much water, too little sun and too much sun—or several of these may be responsible.

However, there are several simple plant medicines that may reverse sickly plants. Coffee grounds on the roots three or four times a week will often work wonders, particularly if two teaspoonfuls of olive oil are added each ten days or so. Check the plants for gas, insect sprays, lack of water and such things, and if they are still sickly, try the coffee grounds and oil cure.

The out-of-state leaders will take part in these conferences, and a large number of Maine leaders in these fields will be on the program.

DON'T BE A "ROAD HOG"

Keeping to the right of the highway is not only good manners but is an absolute requirement under the motor vehicle law. Motorists who disregard this provision add unnecessarily to the hazards of driving. All drivers should observe the rules of fair play and give the "other fellow" the same chance for safety they expect of him. Only a road hog takes his half of the road out of the middle. If a motorist should happen to be using more than his share of the highway and another driver signals intention to pass, ordinary courtesy should compel him to pull over promptly to the right, yet it is a common occurrence to see drivers deliberately hog the road and impede the progress of others. Unless motorists reform their driving practices, they can have only themselves to blame if more stringent State regulations are imposed.—Exchange.

Community Club Supper—Lewis Bell Visiting Home Town—Surprise Party—Mill Busy—Hamlin Building Burned.

The first supper by the Community Club for the season was at the Grange Hall on Wednesday at 6.30, when the Oxford United Parish presented the picture, "The Blind Goddess," a justice deal all through and very good. The supper was in charge of Mrs. Fannie T. Green, and her helpers and it was the usual delicious supper with a good attendance. The next one comes on Oct. 10th.

Mrs. Sarah Green visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ella Burnham in Bridgton one day this past week.

Arthur Edgman has been working for Chas. Lockwood at the Flat for the past week.

Mrs. M. A. Floyd has been ill with a bad cold for a few days.

Lewis Bell of North Dakota, has spent the past week end with his sister, Mrs. W. K. Hamlin. Mr. Bell left Waterford 51 years ago, and took up a farm in the West. Today he owns acres of fine farmland and many cattle. His nephew, Arthur Bell, son of Frank Bell, is located near his uncle and doing quite extensive farming. Bell has many of his old friends gone. The last time he was here was 16 yrs. ago and many changes can take place in that number of years.

Mrs. Sarah Hamlin entertained Mrs. E. K. Kilgore and Mrs. Jennie Hayes at dinner on Wednesday. These ladies are said to have talked very busily.

W. W. Abbott and Flora are better. Will is having his corn harvested and his silo filled.

Harry Haynes sure did a fine job dragging our roads. It sure is a pleasure to ride over them.

A surprise party was tendered Mrs. Ida A. Holden at the home of Albert Hamlin on Friday evening the 28th. The celebration being on Mrs. Holden's birthday. It was indeed a great surprise to her. Mrs. Collins entertained the Holdens at supper and it being such a beautiful moonlight evening Mr. Collins suggested an auto ride. At eight o'clock he drove slowly into the Hamlin yard and blew his horn. The guests then had gathered rushed out to congratulate Mrs. Holden. When the excitement was over eight tables were fixed and what was fully enjoyed by all. The party was a success. Before the refreshments were served the rooms were darkened and Mrs. Albert Hamlin decorated a beautiful birthday cake presented in yellow ribbon with candles. Mrs. Maudie Sanborn which Mrs. Holden extinguished with three vigorous blows. The hostesses, Mrs. Marion Hamlin, Mrs. Fannie T. Green and Mrs. Bell Collins served delicious home made nut, caramel, ice cream and all kinds of cakes contributed by various friends. Mrs. M. Etta Watson found the thimble and Curtis Marr the ring which were baked in the birthday cake. Following the refreshments Mrs. Marion Hamlin presented Mrs. Holden with a box of money given by friends that she might purchase some gift she desired to remember the occasion. It was due to give so nice a party to this worthy lady who always stands ready to help in every worthy cause both with her time and money. May she enjoy many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Leon Willard has returned home to Portland. Mr. Willard is still in Waterford.

The potatoes are dug in this section, most have been good, but some have had the luck to find their's have decayed badly in the ground.

Jason Fride and his daughter, Mrs. Edith Elliot of Windham Centre spent the day with Mrs. A. A. Monroe, on Tuesday. These good people start for St. Cloud, Fla., this week where they own a nice bungalow.

Dorothy Holden has been helping her aunt, Flora Abbott, during her recent illness.

Waterford had another bad fire on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 29th, when the old Young store owned by W. K. Hamlin was burned. Henry Haynes when coming out of the Post-Office at 3 p. m. discovered the smoke coming out of the roof of the old of this building, and saw that the school bell was rung. Mrs. Ida A. Holden, the post-mistress, immediately called for the Harrison and Norway Fire Departments, on the phone. The men who gathered began to carry pails of water, but they found the attic floor all ablaze and the fire had spread to the main floor. The fire was so bad that they were forced to batter in the door to the apartment occupied by Ben Collins and family. The Collins' were in Norway getting back while the fire raged the worst. Some of the Collins' furniture was saved, yet they met with big losses, all their clothing, most of the bedding and a good bit of the furnishings were burned. While many were helping here, others were busy clearing the post-office of its contents, also the store goods and the living apartment upstairs.

Before this task was completed, the Harrison Fire engine arrived and stationed near the old Watson mill. It soon began pumping, taking care of the post-office building. A little later the Norway Fire department arrived and they cared for the end of the building on the north. These firemen surely did nobly, and it seems almost a miracle they were able to save the buildings so close to such intense heat. We all feel that the great per cent of the homes on that street would have been burned but for their brave efforts. It was late in the evening before the fire was under control. The scene. The ladies of the community gathered in food and served a supper for the tired firemen at the Grange Hall.

Every one is so sorry for the Collins' in their great loss. To be thrown out of a home without clothes at this season with two small children is indeed hard. At present they are sleeping with Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Hamlin. After it was deemed prudent to do so, the store goods of Mrs. Holden were stored in the barn and her household goods, and post office supplies returned to the house. She will suffer loss, because of damages always sustained by moving in such quick rapid pace. It will take her days to straighten things out and have them back in running order, yet she is so thankful that her home was spared she is taking up this work with much courage. Mr. Hamlin had a good bit of supplies for the Creamery, housed in this building but all were saved. There was no insurance. It almost seemed as if Waterford was having a bit more than its share of bad fires this season. The cause of the fire is a mystery. It started in the ell and away from any part of the building where there were fires. The firemen expressed the opinion that it was no doubt from defective wiring.

Annie Gardner, who is attending Portland High School, spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Horace Gardner. She motored here with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Warren of Portland, who spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hamlin.

SUMNER

Say or do anything but laugh, ain't this the wettest season since Setting Bull was a calf?

Charles Tuttle and Jimmie Gammon recently put the tape measure around an elm tree at a few inches from the ground, standing in the doorway where Bunn Gammon lives, and found that its circumference was twenty-two feet and ten inches.

On June 17th, 1928, the writer was called upon with an automobile to go to the Tibbets boarding house for the purpose of writing up the Keniston Reunion where there was present a large crowd of relatives and friends. While there, I was entertained highly and against my wishes, I was presented with a handful of silver for my services, but listen. While the old man was working hard at the typewriter, I was shot at, though at what extent I was wounded I could not really tell, until Sept. 18th, when I received a letter that was addressed in a comma's hand; now naturally, at first, I was a little nervous, but soon got my courage and opened the letter and there, to my surprise, was a perfect picture of the "guy" who wrote the Keniston Reunion. It was published in the Advertiser of the week following. Now for this little token, I certainly was well pleased.

At this date, Sept. 26, Cal Russell still keeps his Herford cow, which he was recently offered five hundred dollars for. Doris Bartlett, way out in Rhode Island, becomes a subscriber to the Advertiser.

Lecl Polard worked for Joseph Bosse last week, yarding pulp with his team, on the Penley lot.

Joseph Bosse started a crew cutting birch on the Penley lot the first of the week. Joseph is to cut one thousand cords this fall and winter and haul to the Tibbets mill on the Thompson place.

Lovell Chandler, a short while ago, traded in his old Ford truck for a modern Chevrolet truck, with a Ramford dealer. Lovell said he experienced many hardships while on his way to the dealer's with the old antique, and when he finally arrived, the dealer did not seem to want to keep the old machine simply for the good services it had done for its owner, so he had one of his men run it over to the public dump and set it on fire.

David Chamberlin and two sons, from Hartford Center, have moved into Lovell Oldham's camp in the green woods and are cutting birch for Joseph Bosse.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Merrow of Lewiston, came up to Linn Farrar's, Wednesday, the 26th, and Thursday, the 27th, Mr. and Mrs. Merrow and Mr. and Mrs. Farrar went to the Andover fair.

Thursday, September 27th, Mr. and Mrs. Jones and the Doton went to the fair at Buckfield, now we might say that a couple days previous to this beautiful autumn day Mrs. Jones was Miss Nonie Bonney.

Lovell Chandler is hauling his potatoes to Ramford, carrying from fifty to seventy bushels to a load. Lovell says the market is not very active even at the price of seventy-five cents per bushel. He expects to harvest nearly a thousand bushels this season.

Hats off to Charles A. White, ferryman at Ramford Point, for the marvelous feat he performed in saving the life of our friend, Orin Pingree, Tuesday morning of last week, when Mr. Pingree drove his car off the boat into the cold waters of Androscoggin river. Ping said it was a matter of a short while that he was confined, nevertheless, hundreds of horse trades at our county fairs that had taken place between himself, Jim Plimmons, Albie Coffin, Frank Stevens and dozens of other popular jocks came into his mind while Mr. White was fishing him through a rat-hole, the only exit in the roof of his high powered Hudson, which was sitting pretty on the bottom, in ten feet of water.

While Mrs. Charles Tuttle was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roberts, recently, she also visited the old cemetery near there and put flowers on the graves of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Sturtevant, who were her great grandfathers and grandmother. Mr. Sturtevant was one of General Washington's bodyguards in the Revolutionary War, entering services at the age of 16.

DOING THINGS

"There's never anything new in this town."

How often have you heard that remark? We had it hurled at us a couple of days ago.

And why is there nothing new? Simply because everybody waits for somebody else to start something. We are all ready to talk if the other fellow will do, but too few of us are willing to take the initiative and "start something."

What made New York, and Chicago, and Philadelphia and all of the other great cities of the country? Was it their natural advantages alone or the people who wait for others, or did they just happen?

It was neither of these. It was the ability and the initiative of their "do something" citizens. There is no place in those burghs for the fellow who "waits."

We can do the same here, if we want to. Not on as large or gigantic a scale, of course, but still we can make our condition a thousand per cent. if we will only resolve to "do things"—and then do them.

There are just as many brains in this town in proportion to population as there are in New York, Chicago or Philadelphia, but they are like the sleeping volcano while the city man's brains are constantly in motion.

It is time to wake up—to come out of our trance—it is time to "do something."

We suggest that you do something, because we know that you have the ability to do. And when they see your brain working to a purpose others will sit up and start theirs to moving, too.

If you have ever made such a complaint of this community, we are talking to you, too. Shake the cobwebs from your brains, and in time you will find others keeping the pace right by your side. Do something yourself, and then you will never have occasion to say to others that "there is never anything doing in this town."

A sleeping volcano never makes much smoke.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' VISIT TO EXPOSITION

A flood of letters came last week to the headquarters of the Maine State Chamber of Commerce from the 120 Maine boys' and girls' agricultural club folks whose expenses from their homes to Springfield, Mass., and a week at the Eastern States Exposition were paid by the State Chamber as a reward for excellence in club work. Most of the letters mentioned the educational value of the trip as well as its pleasures.

Many Maine Granges are showing their interest in this project by contributing toward the cost of transportation of the boys and girls from their respective counties. The boys and girls from the clubs in Oxford County who were guests of the State Chamber of Commerce on this memorable trip were: Eva M. Ladd, Bethel; John Stevens, Ray Station, Canton; Leslie White, Roscoe, Knight, Ramford Point; Frances Doughty, Norway; Sylvia Morgan, North Paris; Isabel Flemming, South Paris.
